

American Studies

A minor in American Studies consists of 18-24 credits selected from the list maintained by the program coordinator. These courses must include:

- 40.248 American Values
- Two 300 level courses that are listed under American Studies or are accepted toward the American Studies Major (choose from courses listed in the schedule of classes booklet under American Studies)
- One interdisciplinary course at the 300 level

The remaining credits can be selected from the courses that are listed under American Studies or are accepted toward the American Studies Major.

See webpage for current coordinator of the program and contact information as well as a list of approved courses.