

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

Between the

ASSOCIATE IN SCIENCE DEGREE – CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAM

Of

MARIAN COURT COLLEGE

And the

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS LOWELL
CRIMINAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

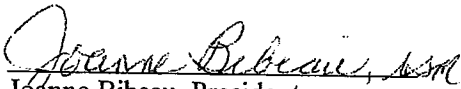

Spring 2004

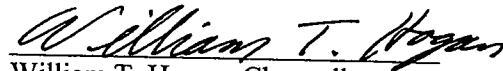

This articulation agreement has been established between Marian Court College and the University of Massachusetts Lowell Criminal Justice Department. This agreement was developed with the intent of facilitating the transfer process from Marian Court College to the University of Massachusetts Lowell. This agreement will serve as a guideline for those who desire transfer into the Criminal Justice major at the University of Massachusetts Lowell.

Marian Court College and University of Massachusetts Lowell agree to the following:

1. Marian Court College students who complete the Criminal Justice Program, and who have earned the Associate of Science with a cumulative 3.0 gpa or better, will be guaranteed acceptance into the University of Massachusetts Lowell College of Arts & Sciences, Criminal Justice major. Students who do not meet the aforementioned minimum standards will be considered for admission to the University of Massachusetts Lowell on a case-by-case basis.
2. Marian Court College students completing the Associate in Science –Criminal Justice Program will receive academic credit for courses graded “C-“ or better, subject to the transfer credit policy of the University of Massachusetts Lowell. The “UMASS LOWELL TRANSFER AGREEMENT” attached to this document outlines those courses which transfer directly into the Criminal Justice major at the University of Massachusetts Lowell.
3. Courses judged below college level by the University of Massachusetts Lowell will not be accepted for transfer credit.

This agreement shall remain in effect for a period of two years from the date indicated below with the provision that the terms specified herein will continue to apply to students who transferred from Marian Court College within one year of the expiration of this agreement. Each institution agrees to provide timely notice to the other in the event of any modification to the curriculum that might affect compatibility for transfer.
