

Contents

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| List of Tables  | vii        |
| List of Figures   | vii        |
| Preface   | X          |
| Notes on Contributors   | xi         |
|    |            |
| 1 Introduction: Corporate Resource Allocation and Employment Opportunities in the United States | 1   |
| William Lazonick and Mary O'Sullivan  |            |
|    |            |
| 2 Maximizing Shareholder Value: A New Ideology for Corporate Governance                         | 11  |
| William Lazonick and Mary O'Sullivan  |            |
|    |            |
| 3 Organizational Learning and International Competition: The Skill-Base Hypothesis              | 37  |
| William Lazonick  |            |
|    |            |
| 4 Good Jobs and the Cutting Edge: The US Machine Tool Industry                                  | 78  |
| Robert Farrant  |            |
|    |            |
| 5 Good Jobs Flying Away: The US Jet Engine Industry   | 104 |
| Beth Almeida  |            |
|    |            |
| 6 What Prognosis for Good Jobs? The US Medical Diagnostic Imaging Equipment Industry            | 141 |
| Chris Tilly with Michael Handel   |            |
|    |            |
| 7 Earnings Inequality and the Quality of Jobs: Current Research and a Research Agenda           | 183 |
| Philip Moss   |            |

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| 8 The Japanese Economy and Corporate Reform:What Path to Sustainable Prosperity? | 226 |
| William Lazonick  |            |
| 9 Corporate Governance in Germany: Productive andFinancial Challenges            | 255 |
| Mary O'Sullivan   |            |
| Index   | 301 |