The Center for Public Health Research and Health Promotion invites you to attend a seminar presentation by Dr. K. Vish Viswanath, entitled.

“Communication Divides and Implications for Health Disparities”

Dr. K. Viswanath is a member of the faculty at the Harvard School of Public Health (HSPH) and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute (DFCI), and a Core Director of the Health Communication Core of the Dana-Farber/Harvard Cancer Center (DFHCC). Dr. Viswanath’s research focuses on examining how inequalities in communication are associated with health disparities. He has published extensively in the areas of health communication, communication campaigns, e-health and mass communication.

Light lunch will be served
