

American Studies

A minor in American studies consists of 18-24 credits selected from the list maintained by the program coordinator. These courses must include:

- 40.248 American Values (required)
 - Two 300 level courses that are listed under American Studies or are accepted toward the American Studies Major (choose from courses listed in the schedule of classes booklet under the American Studies interdisciplinary minor)
 - One interdisciplinary course
 - Two additional American Studies courses at any level (choose from American Studies Major section in booklet).
-
- Contact the American Studies Department, O'Leary 461 at 978-934-3482