

Business

The business minor program consists of seven required courses: a foundation in accounting, marketing and economics taken at the sophomore level, and four courses at the junior level.

The business minor program courses are:

Semester I

49.201 Economics I

60.201 Accounting/ Financial

Semester II

62.201 Marketing Principles

Students planning to minor in business should begin by taking the following courses:

49.201 Economics I

60.201 Accounting/ Financial

62.201 Marketing Principles

These courses are open to all students in the University.

Upon satisfactory completion of these three courses, students should contact the College of Management Dean's Office, Pasteur 305, to enroll in the business minor program.

Additional requirements:

Semesters III & IV

61.301 Business Finance

63.301 Management Information Systems

66.301 Organizational Behavior

6_. ____ College of Management 300/400 Elective

Minor in Business Administration for Civil & Environmental Engineering majors:

14.372 Civil Engineering Systems (already in CEE core)

14.475 Construction Management (CEE Professional Elective)

49.201 Economics I (already in CEE core)

60.201 Accounting/Financial *

61.301 Business Finance *

62.201 Marketing Principles

66.301 Organizational Behavior * (may be used as a CEE Professional Elective)

* These courses are also offered during the summer and on-line.

- Contact the College of Management Dean's office, Pasteur 305, 978-934-2850