

Film Studies

Prof. Maria Matz, Department of Cultural Studies.

Tel#: 978-934-4364

Office: Coburn Hall, Room 113C

The interdisciplinary minor in Film Studies consists of 15-24 credits of coursework. Additional courses to complete the required credits may be selected from the following list or other course listings in this catalogue.

42.230 Film Classics

42.232 Turning Fiction into Film

42.241 Women in Film

45/46.316 Politics, Philosophy and Film

50.376 French Cinema & Society

50.378 Women in French Cinema

52.335 Cinema & the Italian Americans

52.374 Classics of Italian Cinema

52.378 Italian Cinema and Culture

52.380 Italian Cinema: Themes and Directors

58.370 Art History and Film

At least six credits must be taken in coursework at the 300-level or above. The list of approved courses may change from time to time depending on the offerings of the several departments involved; students should check with the appropriate coordinator to see which courses are currently approved.