

Latin American Studies

Prof. Maria Matz, Department of Cultural Studies

Tel#: 978-934-4364

Office: Coburn Hall 113C

Courses for a minor field in Latin American Studies are selected from a list of approved courses in Languages, History, Art History, Political Science, and Cultural Studies. Six credits at the 200-level or above are required for the Spanish language component. Coursework for the Latin American studies minor must meet the following distribution requirement:

Spanish Language	6 cr
Art History/ Political Science/ History	6-9 cr
Latin American Literature	6-9 cr

All courses in Latin American Civilization and Culture

At least six hours in non-language courses must be taken in coursework at the 300-level or above.

Students majoring in Spanish language or Modern Languages (with Spanish option) may elect the Latin American studies minor but may not offer any course in Spanish or literature (prefix: 54) as part of the 18-24 semester credits.

The following courses are approved for the Latin American Studies Minor. Students may also petition to have other courses count for the minor.

Cultural Studies

54.315 Latin American Civilization and Culture

54.416 The Latin American Novel

54.491 Directed Studies in Spanish Literature

54.492 Directed Studies in Latin American Literature

54.495 Advanced Tutorial in Spanish

54.496 Spanish Practicum Experience

58.355 Studies in World Art: Latin American Topic

History

43.208 The Atlantic World in the Age of Democratic Revolution, 1760-1848

43.209 Colonial Latin America

43.212 Modern Latin America

43.323 World of the Atlantic

43.345 Slavery and Abolition

Political Science

46.370 Latin American Politics

Work Environment

31.313 Intro to Environmental Health

Regional Economic & Social Development

57.537 Development Principles for Developing Economies