Current Statement on Language Substitution Classes:

EXEMPTIONS FROM FOREIGN LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT

FOR STUDENT ENROLLING FOR THE FALL 2016 AND AFTER

Students who are granted a Language Disability Waiver (LDW) exemption from the foreign language requirement, will without exception, have to fulfill an alternative requirement. The requirement consists on completing any two of the LDW courses on the list attached. In addition, students must select a language that is offered at UML and take two approved World Language cultural courses (in the same language). In the event that two such courses are not offered in a semester and the student needs the courses to graduate, an alternate will be suggested at the approval of the Associate Dean of FAHSS.

Please keep in mind that not all courses are offered each semester. I also attach here a document explaining how to find world ready tagged courses on SIS, as it is the most accurate way to find world ready courses being taught each semester. Please note that flexible courses are not permanently tagged on SIS and require an exception form to be applied toward language requirement.

How to find World Ready approved courses in the College of FAHSS?

All approved World Ready courses are tagged in SiS and you may search which courses apply to your world ready track by following these steps:

1. Log in to your SIS account

2. Go to the “Class Search” page

3. Unclick “search open classes only” to find all courses approved for a specific language; Click “search open classes only” to find courses offered for the semester selected at the top of the page and with availability

4. At the bottom of the page, go to “Course Attributes” and click “Language World Track Ready” in the drop down menu

5. Once you have selected “Language World Track Ready”, go to “course attribute value” right below and click the drop down menu to select the language needed

6. Click “search” and the list of courses for a selected language will appear
