The Department of World Languages and Cultures and
The Saab-Pedroso Center for Portuguese Culture & Research

Invite you to an evening of Franco-Portuguese Cinema

The Gilded Cage (La cage dorée)
A film by Ruben Alves
(2013, 90 minutes, France/Portugal, Pathé. In French and Portuguese with English subtitles)

“Alves has served up a loveably authentic romp that manages to speak to a broad audience, while also echoing the experiences of millions of emigrés around the world”
(The Sydney Morning Herald)

TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 2015
O’Leary 222, UMASS LOWELL (South Campus)
6PM: Reception & Film, followed by Q&A

This event is co-sponsored by the Consulate General of France in Boston as part of the New England celebration of Francophonie 2015, the Consulate General of Portugal in Boston and the Arte Institute of Manhattan

Contact: Carole_Salmon@uml.edu