Celebration of the 25th Anniversary of the signing of the Americans with Disability Act
Tuesday, March 1st
6:00PM
Moloney Hall, UCC 260

Sponsored by: Disability Services, College of Health Sciences, & Equal Opportunity and Outreach
Featuring Executive Director, Thomas P. Hopkins, of the State Access Board for Massachusetts and Disability Rights Advocate. Director Hopkins will share his personal journey as a differently abled individual and his fight for the civil rights of citizens of the commonwealth that are differently abled.
Reception immediately following.

Movie Night: Still Alice
Wednesday, March 23rd
6:00PM
Weed Hall, L3, SC

Sponsored by: NuPath, Interdisciplinary Minor in Disability Studies & Disability Services
Still Alice is an Oscar winning film about a Linguistics professor struggling with early onset Alzheimer’s disease. Alice and her family must learn how to cope with the disease and the loss of who she once was.

Playing for Inclusion
Sunday, March 6th
3:00PM
Campus Rec Center

Sponsored by: Disable the Label, For the Love of the Game, & Best Buddies
A floor hockey clinic for individuals around the area, who have disabilities, they will be coached by both Men’s and Women’s Club Hockey Teams. There will be raffles, performances, pizza and more! The event will wrap up with an exciting scrimmage between the participants and the athletes!

Autism Awareness
Thursday, March 31st
6:00PM
Moloney Hall, UCC 260

Sponsored by: Interdisciplinary Minor in Disability Studies & Disability Services
UMASS Lowell student, Special Olympian and author Tyler Lagasse will share his story as told in his autobiography What Do You Say? : Autism With Character &
Dr. Ashleigh Hiller will speak regarding her work with Students with ASD and other Disabilities on our campus. Dr. Hillier’s applied research program focuses on programs for adolescents and young adults on the autism spectrum.