This course offers an introductory survey to the history of the Portuguese world since the Roman occupation of the Iberian Peninsula to the revolution of 1974. You will be taken into a voyage in time exploring topics such as the foundation of the Kingdom of Portugal in 1143, the building of the first global empire, and ensuing colonization and decolonization processes, and lastly implantation of the Republic and Portugal and the authoritarian regime of Salazar that led to the Portuguese revolution of 1974.

Come and join this Adventure!

HIST 3900.201 (History of Portugal), M/W/F, 9-9:50 AM ana_valdez@uml.edu

With additional support from Elisia Saab and Luis Pedroso.