

UMass Lowell Residency Classification Worksheet: In-State Eligibility

This worksheet will assist enrolled and potential students to determine if they qualify for In-State residency reclassification (tuition and fee purposes). Submit all documentation to the Office of Financial Aid unless directed otherwise. More information is found at www.uml.edu/residency.

Continuing Studies Corporate Education (CSCE) students are advised to visit the CSCE financial information webpage at http://continuinged.uml.edu/general/tuition.htm#\$90170 or call (978)934-2550.

I. Citizenship Status

Are you a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, legal immigrant, eligible to apply (in receipt of I-485), or have refugee/asylum status?

Yes – proceed to section II.

No – not eligible for In-State tuition.

II. Sources of Financial Support

Are you 18 years and financially independent from your parents/legal guardians? If under 18 years of age, are you legally married, have no parents or your parents have no legal obligation to support or maintain you?

Yes – you are considered emancipated. Proceed to section III.

No – you are considered unemancipated (you are claimed on someone else's income tax returns). Proceed to section III.

III. Enrollment Status

Are you a first time applicant for admissions to UMass Lowell (freshman or transfer)?

Yes – Proceed to section IV. This also applies to readmit applicants with a new legal residency.

No - If you are already enrolled at UMass Lowell, proceed to section V. If you are a readmit student, proceed to section VI. If unsure, send inquiry to residency@uml.edu.

IV. Freshman and Transfer Applicants

Physical Residence in Massachusetts - Have you resided in Massachusetts for approximately 12 months prior to applying to UMass Lowell? If unemancipated, have your parents/legal guardians resided in Massachusetts for approximately 12 months prior to applying to UMass Lowell?

Yes – most cases will be considered In-State unless conflicting information is identified on the admissions application, such as:

- parent's permanent residence in another state
- recent relocation to another state
- transcripts from out of state schools
- graduation from a prep/private school in Massachusetts but parents live out of state

The Admissions Office reserves the right to request additional documentation to support a residency claim.

No – Unless one of exceptions in Section VII applies, your classification will probably be Out-of-State, New England Regional Student Program (NERSP) or Proximity Program. If unemancipated, your residency classification will be based on your parent/legal guardian's residency.

If unsure of your residency classification, check the exceptions listed in section VII or send a detailed e-mail with all pertinent information to residency@uml.edu.

V. Enrolled Students

Physical Residence in Massachusetts - Initially, did you relocate from another state or country to Massachusetts to attend UMass Lowell? Please note – According to state regulations, “residency is not acquired by mere physical presence in Massachusetts while the person is enrolled in an institution of higher education.”

Extraordinary Circumstances – UMass Lowell will consider cases where the relocation to Massachusetts was due to extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the applicant. Some examples include: death of a parent which results in relocation of unemancipated student to live with relatives in Massachusetts, unexpected loss of employment with less than 12 months residence in Massachusetts, etc. Extensive documentation is required in order for us to consider this type of request. However, as with all other situations, the applicant has to be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident, legal immigrant, or eligible to apply (in receipt of I-485). Application deadlines apply.

Submit the following: Submit detailed e-mail to residency@uml.edu or contact Héctor Malavé, Office of Financial Aid, UMass Lowell, (978)934-4220. Additional documentation will probably be required from the applicant.

Marriage to a Massachusetts Resident - The spouse of any person who is classified or is eligible for classification as a Massachusetts resident is likewise eligible for classification as a Massachusetts resident. This provision will not apply in the case of a spouse in the United States on a non-immigrant visa (unless the applicant has received the I-485).

Submit the following:

- In-State Tuition Eligibility Form (signed) & copy of completed residency classification worksheet.
- Copy of marriage certificate.
- Applicant & Spouse - copy of Massachusetts driver's license and/or passport.
- Massachusetts spouse - copy of most recent federal and state income tax returns (signed or certified by a CPA, or issued by IRS for federal returns, or issued by Mass Dept. of Revenue for state returns).
- Massachusetts spouse - copy of Massachusetts driver's license or passport.
- Massachusetts spouse - copy of Massachusetts car registration
- Massachusetts spouse - copy of rental/lease agreement or house ownership document that establishes residence location for at least 12 months. Informal family/friend arrangements are not accepted.
- Massachusetts spouse - copy of pay stubs or other employer-issued documents establishing employment for the last 12 months.

Massachusetts Higher Education System Employees - Full time faculty, professional staff, and classified staff employees of the public higher education system (UMass, state colleges and community colleges), their spouses and dependent students are eligible for In-State classification.

Submit the following:

- In-State Tuition Eligibility Form (signed)
- UMass Lowell Employees - send e-mail to residency@uml.edu requesting In-State residency classification. Include your name and employee ID number.
- All other Employees, Spouses & Dependents - send detailed e-mail to residency@uml.edu requesting In-State residency classification. Include name and employee ID number, as well as a copy of the employee identification card.
- Also, for Spouses & Dependents - copy of first two pages of the most recent federal income tax return.

Massachusetts National Guard Waiver - Participants in the Massachusetts National Guard 100% Tuition and Fee Waiver program are considered Massachusetts residents for tuition purposes.

Submit the following:

- In-State Tuition Eligibility Form (signed) & copy of completed residency classification worksheet.
- Copy of Certificate of Eligibility or letter from Massachusetts National Guard confirming waiver for the period under consideration.
- Legible copy of Massachusetts National Guard identification card.

Refugee/Asylee Status - Non-citizens who are in, or who are eligible to apply and who have applied for, refugee/asylum status are likewise eligible to be considered for In-State residency. However, if applicant is denied refugee/asylee status, the student's residency will be changed to out-of-state.

Submit the following:

- In-State Tuition Eligibility Form (signed) & copy of completed residency classification worksheet.
- Legible copy of original passport and visa. We will not accept ineligible copies, copy of a copy, or missing documents. In lieu of these documents, we will accept a copy of an original letter from the U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services or another federal agency. Attorney letters do not take the place of government documents.
- Legible copy of current driver's license or another type of official identification issued by a state or federal agency.
- Additional documentation may be required as determined by the Residency Reclassification Officer.
