The UMass Lowell Committee on Industrial Theory and Assessment and Community Partners Present—

“Patterns of Community Development”
A Film Series with Food, Discussion & Performing Arts

April 7

Uprooted (28 minutes): Three stories of immigrants who left their homes in Bolivia, Haiti, and the Philippines to face new challenges in the U.S. Local poets will read. Event Partners: Lowell Poetry Network and the New England Poetry Conference sponsored by UML’s Jack and Stella Kerouac Center for American Studies

April 14

Monkey Dance (65 minutes): The film follows the lives of three Cambodian-American teenagers, members of Lowell’s Angkor Dance Troupe, through three years of their lives as they struggle to fulfill their dreams. A selection of the troupe’s dancers will perform before the film. Event Partners: Cambodian Expressions and Angkor Dance Troupe

April 21

The Value of Life: AIDS in Africa Revisited

April 28

Is Wal-Mart Good for America? (55 minutes): A recent Front-line special on PBS that examines Wal-Mart’s impact on jobs, wages, and working conditions in the United States and China. Event Partner: The Labor Extension Program at UMass Lowell

For more information, visit www.uml.edu/com/CITA.