TRIP DESCRIPTION:
Join us for a fun day of hiking in New Hampshire! The Belknap Mountain Range is a prominent range west of Lake Winnipesaukee in the towns of Gilford, Gilmanton, and Alton, NH. Numerous scattered ledges on all the peaks provide fine views of Lake Winnipesaukee, the Ossipee and Sandwich ranges, and Mt. Washington. Lower summit elevations and moderate terrain make this a perfect range to practice winter hiking skills. Leaders will review winter hiking safety, equipment, group travel and leave no trace.
