In a one-paragraph answer per question, defend your statements and support your answers with evidence from the text.

1. Consider all of the documents, what do they tell us about what Barilla's life was like in Lowell? Cite examples from the document to support your claims.
2. Do you think she had any regrets about her decision to leave the farm for factory life? Explain.
3. If Barilla had not passed away at age 17, what opportunities do you think she would have pursued? Cite from the documents to support your claims.
4. What other questions do you have about Barilla's life and work in Lowell's mills?
