Congratulations to Cheer for their performance at the NCA prep camp this past September. The team received a Bronze Bid to the National Cheerleading Association (NCA) national competition that will take place in Daytona Beach, Florida in April of 2018.

Captain Kaelin Page spoke about the success of the performance saying, “The camp was an amazing opportunity to improve on our skills as well as a team. Ryan, our instructor was very knowledgeable and gave us many new stunts and pyramids which we are continuing to practice and improve on to incorporate into our routine for nationals. The highlight of the weekend was definitely earning our bid to nationals. For now, we are continuing to perfect and progress our tumbling, jumping and stunting as well as conditioning often to make sure we are in the best shape to be able to compete at nationals in Daytona Beach.”

Congratulations to Cricket for their strong performance at the Northeast Regional Cricket Tournament. The team earned their first victory of the tournament with a close game against MIT and continued their winning streak with a victory over Syracuse University. Due to a walk over (forfeit) from Harvard in the semi-finals, UMass Lowell advanced to play against Northeastern in the championship.

The team fell short in the championship game but their hard work throughout the tournament brought the team its first trophy. The team has been slowly growing into a strong competitor within the league. We look forward to seeing how the team develops in the coming years.

Just Keep Swimming

This past weekend the Swim team competed in a meet at Bridgewater State University. The women’s free relay clocked in at 1:58:92. Congrats Vivian Chung, Kierra Walsh, Jane Driscoll and Catherine Ross on a swimming success.

The men’s free relay swam past the competition landing them a 1:55:90 time. The athletes were Mika Hamiti, Vu Nguyen, Luke Hulme, and Matt Downey. The men’s medley consisted of Nick Westin (Backstroke), Luke Hulme (Breaststroke), Aron Rose (Fly), and Matt Downey (Freestyle), they finished with a time of 1:59:94.

SWIM SPOTLIGHT: Luke Hulme

He started competitively swimming one month ago and went 26.89 on a 50 free in his first race ever; which is a great time for an experienced swimmer, nonetheless a rookie competitor.
This issue's River Hawk Spotlight goes to Katrina Blaus from Quidditch. Katrina has shown continuous improvement throughout the fall season, growing into one of the team’s strongest competitors as well as the team’s first MVP. Her hardwork has not gone unnoticed regionally either as she received recognition from the Massachusetts Quidditch Conference Commissioner.

Men's Rugby Comeback

Men’s rugby had a huge comeback during their game at Providence College. The men entered the second half down by 11 but dominated over the second half and ended the match with a 31-23 victory.

The men currently have a 3-2 record placing them 4th in their division. The team will be traveling to Roger Williams this upcoming Saturday at 1pm and they will end their regular season at home against Bryant University on Friday October 27th at 7pm.

To stay up to date on the teams progress as they work towards the post season, follow them on Facebook @ UMass Lowell Mens Rugby.

This issue’s spotlight goes to Maggie Harding from the Rowing team. Maggie has been on the team for 3 years and still holds all the Women’s records for all levels of erg test since the team went club. She has raced the Head of the Charles Regatta twice, re-qualifying both times and won a Silver and a Bronze in the W1V4+ at the New England Rowing Championships. Maggie also led the 4+ women’s boat this past weekend beating Marietta College and SUNY Geneseo.
