MBA WOMEN INTERNATIONAL VIRTUAL SPRING CAREER FAIR
Connecting Top Talent with Top Employers Nationwide!

Thursday, March 21 from 1-4pm ET

The MBA Women International (MBAWI) Online Career Fair is an unparalleled opportunity to connect online with top companies in the U.S. and abroad. Formerly National Association of Women MBAs, MBA Women International is a not for profit organization dedicated to the advancement of business women as corporate leaders, executives, and entrepreneurs.

This event will connect leading employers with top women talent -- enriching workforce diversity around the world.

REGISTER TODAY IF YOU ARE

» Seeking a position in leadership at a Fortune 500 company.
» In need of training so you’re ready to go get that dream job – we can help you!
» Wishing to set yourself above all other candidates with real time connections to the people who hire.
» Interested in sending your resume to a real person who is guaranteed to read it, instead of an email address.
» Looking for new opportunities in a diverse environment.
» A job seeker who wants to connect with companies around the country from a location of your choice!

HOW THE EVENT WILL WORK

Participants will upload their resumes and profile information prior to the event. This information will be accessible to recruiters even after the fair. Participants will have a wide variety of employers to choose from and can view videos and testimonies from employers. Participants will be connected to a recruiter at a company via a live web text chat. No webcam or Skype device is needed. After the discussion participants can leave notes for the recruiter to remind them of capabilities and talents!

VISIT US ONLINE
www.mbabwomen.org

ABOUT MBAWI

» MBA Women International is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to empowering female business professionals, to assisting women into leadership positions in business, and to enhancing the diversity of the workforce worldwide. Learn more at www.mbabwomen.org.