CPE Student Affiliates Are Eastern Evaluation Research Society (EERS) Bound
Four CPE students will be presenting in New Jersey this April.

The 40th Anniversary EERS Annual Conference will be held on April 2-4, 2017 at the Seaview Resort and Spa in Absecon, New Jersey. Four CPE student affiliates - Elizabeth Farmosa, Jill Ramey, Leah Ferullo, and Rosie Emerson - will be presenting on various evaluation projects. For more info on EERS and their conference go to http://www.eers.org/.

Make Time in Your Busy Schedule for Writing
Our next two Writer's Blocks will be Friday, February 17th and March 17th from 9 a.m.-12 p.m. in O’Leary 528.

WAVES Kickoff Event Was Well Attended
The Making WAVES kickoff event in Alumni Hall on February 2nd featured a keynote address by Dr. Pamela Conrad from the Goddard Space Flight Center, NASA, a poster session, and a reception. Dr. Jill Lohmeier is the internal evaluator for NSF funded initiative. CPE students Rosie Emerson and Leah Ferullo are also working on the evaluation.

For more information, please contact us: cpe@uml.edu
Call for Presentation Proposals
AEA Conference proposals due March 16, 2017

The American Evaluation Association (AEA) will hold its annual conference in Washington, DC on November 6-11, 2017. We would like the CPE to have a good presence at this conference. Faculty and students CPE affiliates should consider submitting a proposal. Evaluation 2017 offers a variety of presentation options: panel discussions, expert lectures, roundtables, skill building workshops, ignite sessions, birds of a feather gatherings, and a new flexible session type. If you plan to attend this conference, please let us know at cpe@uml.edu. For more info on the conference go to http://www.eval.org/

Preparing Excellent Teachers of All Language Learners (PETALLs)
Practices that Improve the Education of English Learners Conference
March 8, 2017
4:00-6:45 p.m.
UMass Lowell ICC

This conference is open to all and registration is paid by the PETALLs grant. If you are interested in attending, please register by email: petalls_conference@uml.edu

1 Comp down,
1 more to go
Please join us in congratulating Bangsil Oh.

On January 23, 2017, CPE Student Affiliate, Bangsil Oh, passed her first comprehensive exam. She had to orally defend a portfolio of the scholarly work she has completed thus far in the Graduate School of Education’s Research and Evaluation in Education doctoral program.

If you know anyone who would be interested in joining the CPE or if you have something you want to share in our next newsletter, please let us know at cpe@uml.edu.

Upcoming Free NVivo Webinar

During the March 3rd CPE Brown Bag, QSR International will be holding a free NVivo 11 Webinar. All university members are welcome to either join us in O’Leary 517 or access the webinar remotely. Please contact us at cpe@uml.edu to register or for further details.