You think there is a “Global” world because of e-mail, Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram? Then this course is for you!

Come and discover how the Portuguese in 1415 began to develop the first world “Globalization”. In this course you will be introduced to the history of the small kingdom of Portugal, and will engage on a voyage to uncover the unknown, extending the world limits, until reaching a worldwide empire connecting Europe, Africa, Asia, and the Americas.

Come and join this Adventure!
