LOWELL, Mass. - The UMASS Lowell Department of Art and Design is proud to announce the biannual Fall 2016 BFA Exhibition. The show will be displayed in the University Gallery on the first floor of Mahoney Hall, located on UMASS Lowell’s south campus at 870 Broadway Street in Lowell, MA. The exhibition extends from Wed., Dec. 14 – Thurs., Dec. 22, 2016 and all are invited to a reception on Dec. 14 from 5 - 7 p.m. in the University Gallery.

The BFA candidates are: Joseph Amico, Ashley Bolis, Tyler Dearborn, Rebecca Dolan, Jarek Jesionowski, and Danielle Wager. These artists’ projects consist of multi-media works including animation, painting, photography, sculpture and graphic design. Their work explores photography using blacklight, storytelling via animated short, landscapes and portraits using oil paint, and prosthetic steampunk sculpture.

The University Gallery is accessible to all. Gallery events are free and open to the public. Parking can be found in Wilder Metered Lot, located at the intersection of Wilder Street and Bachelder Street, with the entrance located on Bachelder Street. The lot is open for both visitors and members of the UMASS Lowell community. After 3 p.m. visitors may park in any open campus lot that is not metered during the week.

The UMASS Lowell BFA Degree Program is an accredited visual arts program of professional study in art & design that maintains the standards, guidelines and practices established by the National Association of Schools of Art & Design.

Gallery Hours: Mon - Fri 10 - 4 p.m., appointments recommended.
