You are cordially invited to the:

2017 Voices of Working Women (VOWW) Lunch

Thursday, November 9th from 12 – 1 pm
Moloney Hall, University Crossing
Lunch Provided

The University of Massachusetts Lowell’s employment services stated goal is “to recruit, develop and retain a skilled and diverse workforce for the University of Massachusetts Lowell.”

VOWW believes that one of the best ways to keep a skilled workforce is to ensure a positive work climate. What makes a work climate good? Please join us for a discussion about your climate at work.

We will be having an interactive text questionnaire at the lunch.
Bring your cellphone

RSVP by November 3rd to Susan_Winning@uml.edu/

Sponsored by:

The Center for Women & Work and the Labor Education Program
Service Employees International Union
UMASS Lowell Labor Education Programs
Center for the Promotion of Health in New England Workplace