Department of Work Environment, University of Massachusetts Lowell
WHO Collaborative Center US 269

TOR 1
To establish bilateral occupational safety & health academic collaboration agreements and projects with Universities in Ecuador, Chile, Peru, Mexico and Thailand

ACTIVITY 1.1
To develop and interdisciplinary network of scientists and policymakers to address occupational health issues

TOR 2
To assist WHO in the diffusion and dissemination of research outcomes in occupational health and safety for vulnerable groups and high risk sectors in the Americas

ACTIVITY 2.1
To diffuse and disseminate information on healthy workplaces to low-wage and union workers in Latinamerica

TOR 3
In agreement with WHO, to provide formal training courses on psychosocial work factors to hard to reach sectors including union workers, low-wage/industrial workers, and immigrant workers

ACTIVITY 3.1
To design a worker training program (in English and Spanish) on psychosocial risk factors using popular education methods

TOR 4
To support WHO action plan for protecting healthcare workers by providing technical assistance for mercury reduction in Latin American hospitals and other developing countries abroad

ACTIVITY 4.1
To disseminate information on mercury reduction assessment methods, policies, and training materials in hospitals in Mexico and Ecuador