

Garrison has gone to New York success after him - two Ladies called here this morning to get subscriptions for the Sailor's Boarding house &c. - they were of the elite - & I could remember one of them almost turned her out of the house <sup>which</sup> petitioning - I did not know this however when I politely assured her of my extreme interest in the matter & commis-

I can find no handkerchief & think you must have taken it you had better get a few more succeded their sufferings in the good work they had undertaken - congratulated them on the general inter est felt - & told them that it had been my duty to present to the community claims of a more unpopular nature - & you can't conceive say I how that adds to the fatigue & embarrassment of duties like those you have undertaken - Wm. W. Moore on my way home I called at Charins & there found Hutchins with his coat & things off passing the evening back home - Charins being ill with a cold was not visible - I found a little while & then came home - I remained with us there some - called this week - some & Charins then Ben had some - Charins was not - Mrs Ben left her card - there was a mob in Washington Street yesterday - Mrs Jackson called a ladies meeting - & there was an extra meeting & the Alex called a mob - they a mob libeller & young affairs & the ladies came of the mob came - & the Mayor came - Mrs Jackson & Henry Edmund came & took down the sign and it was all done according to rule - It is thought that if Garrison had appeared he would have been in great danger - as the crowd were much incited by an act of violence Mrs Garrison was there & Miss Parker and Miss Barnes & Mrs Fuller & I were in the meeting the scene from - good means that many ladies one Society see there - some doubt which was on the street & the men were called thankful - who directly looked & turned & came to the rescue she got on to the room above the spot peace - arranged them on the street on the vanity of their conduct - some says about two hundred ladies came out - surrounded by hissed at by the outside mob - I don't see but they were received as well as we
