Local Informal English Programs

Academic English course (Navitas at UMass Lowell) - Class taught by a UMass Lowell Instructor.

Available only to UMass Lowell students

Classes are conducted on the UMass Lowell campus, where students focus on developing consistent competency, confidence, and effectiveness in listening, speaking, pronunciation, and grammar/vocabulary skills, while reading, speaking and writing in English. It follows the normal UMass Lowell academic calendar and is offered in fall, spring and summer.

International students require prior approval from the International Students & Scholars Office (isso@uml.edu). Please note that the course is non-credit, and will not count towards your UMass Lowell degree.

To register: contact Navitas at UMass Lowell, through nicole.skaff@globaluml.com or visit them on the 2nd Floor of Cumnock Hall.

Please contact Nicole Skaff (nicole.skaff@globaluml.com) or Pap Sarr (pap.sarr@globaluml.com) for information on program options, pricing, etc.

International Students & Scholars are welcome to join in any of the following
