GRANT-FUNDED RESEARCH

Information Sharing and the Role of Sex Offender Registration & Notification

Role: Lead Principal Investigator

Funding Source: National Institute of Justice, U.S. Department of Justice

Grant Amount: $1,000,000

Term of Grant: January 2015-December 2018

Co-Investigators: Christopher Lobanov-Rostovsky and Kimberly Kras

Description: National study focused on the implementation and information sharing functions of sex offender registration and notification (SORN) systems. Includes development of a multi-dimensional inventory of the organizational and operational characteristics of SORN systems in 50 states; focus groups, interviews and national surveys of law enforcement and probation and parole professionals; national and state-based community surveys; development of a comprehensive cost analysis framework for evaluating SORN-related cost drivers; interoperability assessments to identify models of system integration and efficiencies and areas of opportunity; and a series of case studies highlighting models and best practices for enhancing information sharing and improving SORN system efficiency.

Understanding Law Enforcement Perspectives on Sex Offender Registration & Notification

Role: Lead Principal Investigator

Funding Source: National Institute of Justice, U.S. Department of Justice

Grant Amount: $233,307

Term of Grant: January 2014-August 2016

Co-Investigators: Christopher Lobanov-Rostovsky and Jill S. Levenson

Description: Study represents the first comprehensive national assessment of law enforcement uses of and perspectives on sex offender registration and notification systems. The two-year, mixed-method study featured collection and analysis of individual and group interview data from over 100 law enforcement line and command staff across two-dozen county, local, and tribal jurisdictions, and administration of a nationwide survey of over 1,400 law enforcement agencies.

Collateral Consequences of Juvenile Sex Offender Registration & Notification: Promoting Research-Informed Policy and Practice

Role: Co-Principal Investigator (with Elizabeth Letourneau, Johns Hopkins University)

Funding Source: Open Society Foundation

Grant Amount: $200,000

Term of Grant: September 2012-August 2014

Description: Nationwide study investigating the effects of juvenile sex offender registration and notification on youth and families. Through surveys of treatment providers, juveniles who sexually offend (JSOs), and caregivers, study analyzes effects of registration and notification on social, attitudinal, educational, and mental health variables that may influence risk of re-offense.

Building a Prevention Framework to Address Teen “Sexting” Behaviors

Role: Lead Principal Investigator

Funding Source: Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, U.S. Department of Justice

Grant Amount: $662,919

Term of Grant: October 2010-May 2013

Co-Investigators: Elizabeth Letourneau, Judith Davidson, Carl Paternite, Karin Miofsky

Description: Principal investigator and project team leader for two-year, multi-state study investigating youth and adult perspectives related to teen “sexting,” its motivations, and its consequences.

National Sex Offender Registration Project

Role: Lead Principal Investigator

Funding Source: UMass Lowell Research and Scholarship Council Seed Grant

Grant Amount: $9,950

Grant Awarded: June 2010

Description: Developed seed proposal to support analysis of data extracted from state-based public sex offender registries. Initiative carried out in collaboration with team of researchers in Massachusetts, Florida, California, and New Jersey.

Multi-state Recidivism Study Using Static-99 Risk Scores and Tier Guidelines from the Adam Walsh Act (Consultant)

Funding Source: National Institute of Justice

Principal Investigator: Kristen Zgoba, New Jersey Department of Corrections

Sex Offender Authentication Project (Consultant)

Funding Source: Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice

Principal Investigator: Donald Rebovich, Utica College
