UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS LOWELL
GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
M.ED. CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION
(MASSACHUSETTS AND OUT OF STATE PROGRAMS)

ADMISSIONS CRITERIA

The program leads to a master of education degree in curriculum and instruction and is designed to meet the needs of experienced practitioners who seek to broaden and deepen their professional knowledge in curriculum design and to expand the contributions they can make to education as teacher leaders.

1. Successful applicants must submit proof of a valid teaching license in their state. Proof of licensure must be included with the candidate's application.

1. Teachers and administrators who work in private settings where licensure is not required and who have a minimum of three years teaching experience, must submit a letter from their principal/administrator as proof of working as an administrator or teacher in the school.

3. Applicants are expected to have a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in their undergraduate work.

4. GRE is not required for admission.
